

1. Who within the food chain has the most work to do to become sustainable?

2. Who should pay for the implementation of greater sustainability in the food system?

3. What mandatory information should be included on labels?

4. Should farmers diversify from being just food producers to also farmers for biodiversity?

